Stuff to know about the chart:

Yes = The channel is available on the cheapest pricing tier. That price is listed next to the service's name.

No = The channel isn't available at all on that service.

$ = The channel is available for an extra fee, either a la carte or as part of a more expensive package or add-on.

Regional sports networks -- channels devoted to showing regular-season games of particular pro baseball, basketball and hockey teams -- are not listed.

ABC, CBS, Fox, NBC, MyNetworkTV and The CW networks are not available in every city and availability of these local channels varies per service.

PBS is only currently available on YouTube TV.

The chart columns are arranged in order of price.
